

Juliet Wine Garden and the Stars of Europe shine at a midsummer night

One of the gala evening events at the Melbourne Food and Wine Festival is the Stars of Europe – The Dinner. With a setting inspired by A Midsummer Night's Dream, the dinner will feature five of Europe's greatest chefs including Dieter Muller, who has held three Michelin stars since 1998. T'Gallant is excited to be one of the wine partners at this culinary event and its European inspired wines are sure to be a welcome match to the fine foods of Europe.

T'Gallant's Juliet Wine Garden will provide the perfect backdrop for pre-and-post dinner drinks, where guests can enjoy a delightful environment to discuss the latest gastronomical (and vinous) delights. Saturday 21 March will see Shed 4 at Docklands come alive with culinary colour and the Juliet Wine Garden promises to turn the waterside event into an Italian inspired mid-summer night! ### Lengthy palates from T'Gallant a perfect match for a long lunch

As part of the Melbourne Food and Wine Festival, T'Gallant is excited to be a partner of the Festival's premier event. The 2009 World's Longest Lunch, on Friday 13 March has already reached full capacity and will feature a 400 metre white clothed table winding along the banks of the Yarra River on Crown Riverside, with more than 1200 guests.

The riverside table will be a visual spectacle with an Italian flavoured feast. Roving entertainment, lively conversation and a delicious three-course lunch will be matched with Victorian wines including wines from T'Gallant!

Tickets for the regional events (also on Friday 13 March) are still available. Check out these lovely lunches in the country with 23 stunning locations across 10 diverse regions: <http://www.melbournefoodandwine.com.au/www/html/354-worlds-longest-lunch.asp>

Connex Barbeque set to sizzle at Fed Square

Nothing is more Australian than a good old-fashioned barbeque. This national icon will be celebrated in true Melbourne style – in a giant backyard, right in the heart of the city! A grassy green lawn in the centre of Federation Square will include T'Gallant's Juliet Wine Garden, where guests can enjoy a refreshing glass of Juliet wine! Sizzling meals and demonstrations by Melbourne's leading chefs will showcase delicious BBQ techniques from around the globe.

Come and visit the team at T'Gallant's Juliet Wine Garden at the Connex Sizzle on Saturday 14 March and enjoy an array of gourmet barbeque tasting plates. Doors open at midday. Check out all the details at: <http://www.melbournefoodandwine.com.au/www/html/152-event-details.asp?eventId=21295>

Wicked Sunday

T'Gallant's Juliet is proud to be a partner with Wicked Sunday - a day of utter indulgence as guests can treat themselves to chocolate, coffee, ice cream, amazing cheeses, very special wines (including T'Gallant Juliet) and much more.

Witness Federation Square morph into a circus playground on Sunday, 15 March where childhood fantasies and naughty foods will be encouraged. Sample and stock your home with handmade chocolates, boutique ice cream and gelato, specialty cheese, artisan cakes and biscuits. Enter the Chocolate Playground to watch Melbourne's favourite pastry chefs demonstrate their most wicked chocolate recipes at Meltdown! Or cross into the dark world of Seven Wicked Sins. Coffee enthusiasts can Celebrate the Bean, while the little angels (or devils) can have their faces painted. Doors open at 10am. All the facts are at:
