

T'GALLANT

Tribute Pinot Gris 2013

The Tribute Pinot Gris 2013 is a true reserve version of the Imogen. The grapes are sourced from the T'Gallant Tuck's Road Vineyard and picked at the end of harvest in perfect conditions. Close your eyes and this wine transports you to Alsace...

Winemaker Comments: Kevin McCarthy

Vineyard Region

Mornington Peninsula

Vintage Conditions

The 2013 vintage in Southern Victoria was characterised by excellent conditions, until a heat wave appeared during harvest. Overall the conditions produced Pinot Gris fruit with crisp, varietal flavours and striking acid.

Technical Analysis

Harvested Early April, 2013

pH 3.44

Acidity 5.0g/L

Alcohol 14.9%

Residual Sugar 0.8g/L

Bottling Date December 18, 2013

Peak drinking Cellar up to 20 years

Grape variety

Pinot Gris

Maturation

100% Stainless Steel

Colour

Mid straw

Nose

Intense ripe notes with fresh fruit; pear and peach. A waxy, wild honeyed background.

Palate

A significant power and weight on the palate; opulent yet dry. Full of richness and ripeness, with a balanced, yet subtle, acidity. A significant, mouth-filling texture.